Dear Parents, Caregivers, & Students

This Say Yes Scholarship Guidebook is designed to answer questions you might have about using the Say Yes scholarship toward tuition at a college or career training program after high school graduation.

As you start to go through this Guidebook to determine how the Say Yes scholarship can help pay for postsecondary tuition, please keep in mind these important points:

- Say Yes tuition scholarships do NOT mean ‘free college.’ Our scholarships only apply to tuition (the cost of classes). If the student decides to live on campus (in a dorm), the cost of food and housing (called ‘room & board’) can be several thousand dollars every year and Say Yes scholarships do not pay those costs.
- Even if the student lives at home, the cost of books and other fees can be hundreds of dollars each semester, and the Say Yes scholarships do not pay those costs.
- Parents/caregivers MUST fill out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA.gov) for your student to receive a Say Yes scholarship. The FAFSA tells you how much federal and state aid the student will receive, which determines the amount of their Say Yes scholarship.
- Say Yes scholarship students may have remaining costs for housing, books, food, travel, and more, which they will be responsible for paying. There are many options available, such as other scholarships, school grants, work-study, part-time job, loans, or other sources of funds. The student’s CMSD counselor or College Now Greater Cleveland advisor can provide info on these and other options.

While there’s a lot of information contained in this Guidebook, we know that financial aid can be a complicated subject so please contact our Scholarship Hotline with ANY questions: 216.454.5400 or SayYesScholarship@CollegeNowGC.org

Glossary

Cost of Attendance: The combination of expenses of attending college, including tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, transportation, and living expenses. These expenses vary by college.

Net Price: An estimate of the actual cost that a student and his or her family need to pay in a given year to cover education expenses for the student to attend a particular school. Net price is determined by taking the institution's cost of attendance and subtracting any grants and scholarships for which the student may be eligible.

Tuition: The amount paid for each class a student is enrolled in.

Room & Board: The cost a college charges for on-campus dormitory housing and a meal plan. These costs are not covered by the Say Yes scholarship.

Mandatory Instructional Fees: Also known as general fees, these are charged uniformly to all students and are covered by Say Yes scholarships. Course fees are not assessed uniformly and are therefore not covered by the Say Yes scholarship.

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): The form that must be completed by everyone applying for federal financial aid. To be eligible for the Say Yes Scholarship, every family must complete the FAFSA.

FSA ID: Username and password combination that serves as a student's or parent's identifier to allow access to personal information in various U.S. Department of Education systems and acts as a digital signature on some online forms such as the FAFSA.

Expected Family Contribution (EFC): The number used to determine a student's eligibility for federal student financial aid. The number is determined by the information reported on the FAFSA.

Glossary

Grant: A monetary aid award given to a student that does not need to be paid back. Generally grants are awarded solely on the basis of financial need.

Federal Pell Grant: A federal grant for undergraduate students with financial need.

Ohio College Opportunity Grant (OCOG): A state grant for undergraduate students with financial need.

Scholarship: Money awarded to a student to help pay for education expenses. Scholarships generally do not have to be repaid.

Merit-Based Aid: Financial aid awarded on the basis of academic qualification, artistic or athletic talent, leadership qualities or similar attributes. Most merit aid comes in the form of scholarships.

Institutional Aid: Scholarships or grants provided by the college or trade school.

Federal Work Study: A federal student aid program that provides part-time employment while a student is enrolled in college or trade school to help pay for educational expenses.

Student Loan: A type of loan designed to help students pay for post-secondary education and the associated fees, such as tuition, books and supplies, and living expenses.

What is the Say Yes Scholarship?

Say Yes Cleveland scholarships are tuition scholarship funds available to eligible Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) and partner charter high school graduates attending a two-year, four-year, or Pell-eligible certificate program at an Ohio public college, university, or trade school, or one of the over one hundred private colleges in the Say Yes National Higher Education Compact. For a list of eligible public and private colleges and universities, please visit: SayYesCleveland.org/scholarships

Please be aware that some private institutions have a limited number of scholarships available to Say Yes Cleveland students. (See page 26)

Students are strongly encouraged to enroll in postsecondary education immediately after high school graduation. Eligible students can defer their postsecondary enrollment for up to one year after high school graduation.

Say Yes Cleveland Scholarships are available for up to eight full-time semesters. Students must use those eight fall or spring semesters of eligibility within five years of beginning their postsecondary education. Scholarships are NOT available for students to pursue master's or other post-undergraduate degrees. (Please see pg. 16 for a potential course load exception based on a student's IEP.)

Qualifying for the Say Yes Scholarship

To be eligible for a Say Yes scholarship, students must:

- be continuously enrolled in a CMSD or eligible charter high school from 9th grade (or from the time school becomes scholarship-eligible) through graduation; and
- live continuously within the city of Cleveland, or one of the areas served by CMSD* from 9th grade (or from the time school becomes scholarship-eligible) through graduation.

Students in CMSD's classes of '20, '21, and '22 must meet the residency and enrollment requirements as of January 18, 2019 (the date Say Yes Cleveland launched)

* Cleveland Metropolitan School District boundaries also include Bratenahl, Linndale, Newburgh Heights, and parts of Brook Park and Garfield Heights. Students who live in these areas meet the residency requirement of the Say Yes scholarship. Any high school student who is considered homeless should connect with their school counselor and Project ACT to ensure scholarship eligibility.

Students must be accepted at an approved institution of higher education.

- ➔ Please remember you must be enrolled full-time (minimum of 12 credit hours per term) to be eligible for a Say Yes Scholarship (Please see pg. 16 for a potential course load exception based on a student's IEP and pg. 21 for special COVID exceptions.)
- ➔ Students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at FAFSA.gov. Please meet with your school counselor or College Now advisor for help completing the FAFSA. To complete the FAFSA and be eligible for federal aid, a student must be a US citizen, or an eligible documented non-citizen or refugee.

What does the Say Yes Scholarship cover?

The Say Yes scholarship can only be used for tuition and mandatory instructional fees. The scholarship is applied to the cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees AFTER any federal or state grants and tuition-specific scholarships are applied. You should confirm with your college whether their institutional scholarships are tuition-specific, as this could affect your Say Yes scholarship. To complete the FAFSA and be eligible for federal aid, a student must be a US citizen, or an eligible documented non-citizen or refugee.

→ The scholarship cannot be used to cover other expenses such as room, board, and books.

You can use other types of aid to cover these costs, such as institutional scholarships, outside scholarships, or student loans. Please meet with your school counselor or College Now advisor for help finding sources of aid to cover these other costs.

Opportunity Grants are available to Say Yes-eligible students attending an Ohio four-year public institution that has adopted a policy to fully cover cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees for all Pell-eligible students. Students will receive $1,000 opportunity grants to cover additional expenses such as books, transportation, and housing. The Ohio State University, Miami University and the University of Akron have programs for students meeting certain income requirements. Please contact the financial aid office and the College Now Say Yes team if you plan to attend these schools.

Applying for the Say Yes Scholarship

In a student's senior year, create an account and complete the Say Yes Scholarship Certification Form through the scholarship portal at:

→ SayYesCleveland.org/for-students/cert

School counselors and College Now advisors are available to help with this process.

When you complete the certification form, you should list all the colleges you are considering attending. Once you decide which school you will be attending, you must log back in and confirm your enrollment at the school.

If the Say Yes Scholarship Certification system indicates that you are ineligible, you may file an appeal at:

→ SayYesCleveland.org/scholarships/scholarship-appeals

Using the Say Yes Scholarship at an Ohio public college or university

If you attend a public college or university, the total amount of the Say Yes Cleveland Scholarship depends on the cost of tuition and fees, the amount of federal and state grants and tuition-specific scholarships provided to you, and your family's income.

For students whose annual family income is $75,000 or less

- ➔ The scholarship will cover the full difference between the total cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees minus the total amount of federal and state grants and tuition specific scholarships received by the student.

Example: If tuition and fees are $12,000 and you receive $6,000 in the Federal Pell Grant and $2,500 in the Ohio College Opportunity Grant (OCOG) and $0 in tuition-specific scholarships, your Say Yes scholarship will cover the difference between the tuition and grants. In this case, it would be $3,500.

Tuition and fees:	$12,000
Pell Grant:	-$6,000
OCOG:	-$2,500
SAY YES Scholarship	$3,500

- ➔ Remember, you still must find other funds to cover any other college expenses, such as room, board, and books.

For students whose annual family income is above $75,000

The scholarship will cover up to $5,000 each year (not to exceed total cost of tuition and fees) to help fund the difference between the total cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees minus the total amount of federal and state grants received by the student.

Example: If tuition and fees are $12,000 and you receive $1,000 in the Federal Pell Grant and $0 in the OCOG and $0 in tuition-specific scholarships, your scholarship will be $5,000.

Tuition and fees:	$12,000
Pell Grant:	-$1,000
SAY YES Scholarship	-$5,000
Tuition still owed:	$6,000

→ You are responsible for finding other funds to cover the rest of the owed tuition and any other college expenses, such as room, board, and books.

Using the Say Yes Scholarship at a partner private college or university

If you attend a Say Yes National Higher Education Compact college or university, the total amount of the Say Yes Cleveland Scholarship depends on the cost of tuition and fees, the amount of federal and state grants and tuition-specific scholarships provided to you, and your family's income.

For students whose annual family income is $75,000 or less

→ The college or university will provide a scholarship that will cover the full difference between the total cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees minus the total amount of federal and state grants and tuition specific scholarships received by the student.

Example: If tuition and fees are $35,000 and you receive $6,000 in the Federal Pell Grant and $4,000 in OCOG and $0 in tuition specific scholarships, your scholarship will be the difference between the tuition and grants. In this case, it would be $25,000.

Tuition and fees:	$35,000
Pell Grant:	-$6,000
OCOG:	-$4,000
Institutional Scholarship	$25,000

- Please note that in this scenario your scholarship will come from the college or university and not Say Yes.
- Remember, you still must find other funds to cover any other college expenses, such as room, board, and books.

For students whose annual family income is above $75,000:

- ➔ The scholarship will cover $5,000 each year to help fund the difference between the total cost of tuition and mandatory instructional fees minus the total amount of federal and state grants received by the student.

Example: If tuition and fees are $35,000 and you receive $2,000 in the Federal Pell Grant and $0 in OCOG and $0 in tuition specific scholarships, your scholarship will be $5,000.

Tuition and fees:	$35,000
Pell Grant:	-$2,000
SAY YES Scholarship	-$5,000
Tuition still owed:	$28,000

- ➔ You are responsible for finding other funds to cover the rest of the owed tuition and any other college expenses, such as room, board, and books.

How to stay eligible for the scholarship while at college

To remain eligible, students must:

- ➔ Be enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours per semester). Potential exceptions include students with an IEP (see below), or students from COVID-impacted graduating classes (see pg. 21).
- ➔ Meet the same Satisfactory Academic Progress as required by federal guidelines
- ➔ Complete a new FAFSA annually
- ➔ Meet the participation requirements for the College Now Mentoring Program

Students with disabilities

A student with an Individual Education Plan (IEP) or other documented disability may be eligible to take less than a full-time credit load in his or her postsecondary program.

Students with disabilities whose documented learning plans require a course load of fewer than 12 credit hours are eligible for a Say Yes scholarship and extra semester(s) of eligibility, up to six years. Students should work with their Transition Coordinators to ensure all necessary documentation transfers to the postsecondary institution. Students should contact the College Now Say Yes team to discuss, in addition to contacting their postsecondary institution's Accessibility Services offices to complete all necessary steps. The College Now Say Yes team can be reached at:

216.454.5400 or sayyesscholarship@collegenowgc.org

Transferring to a different postsecondary program

Students and families need to carefully consider transferring institutions and the implications of the Say Yes scholarship.

As a first step to ensure that students have a full understanding of their transfer plans and the potential impact to their Say Yes scholarship, students need to contact the College Now Say Yes scholarship team at sayyesscholarship@collegenowgc.org or 216.454.5400.

- If a student begins at an Ohio public institution and is receiving a tuition scholarship and transfers to another Ohio public institution, they would still be eligible for a Say Yes scholarship but calculated at the new tuition rate.
- If a student transfers from an Ohio public institution to a Say Yes Compact private institution, however, the student may no longer be eligible for any Say Yes scholarship aid as those dollars are awarded by the institution and oftentimes limited to first year students, not transfer students. Students should check with the institution and find out.
- If a student transfers from a Say Yes Compact private institution to an Ohio public institution, the student will be eligible for the tuition scholarship but number of eligible semesters of funding available needs to be confirmed.

The College Now Mentoring Program

All Say Yes scholarship students will be assigned a mentor through College Now beginning the fall after their high school graduation. Students must continue working with an assigned mentor throughout their postsecondary education experiences. Mentors are volunteers from the Greater Cleveland area who hold college degrees and who can answer questions, offer support, and give advice to students. Matches are based on personal characteristics, career, and academic interests. Once matched, mentors and students communicate online twice a month and meet virtually or in-person (as circumstances allow) throughout students' college careers.

What do students gain from the program?

- Individualized support from their mentor throughout college
- Networking opportunities with over 2,000 other students and professionals in the community
- Professional development and career advice
- Support from College Now staff during college

➔ Say Yes scholars also must complete mentoring orientation and their online mentee profile form before their high school graduation. Go to CollegeNowGC.org/mentor, click "Join" then "Mentee."

➔ Participation in the College Now Mentoring Program is a requirement for the Say Yes scholarship. Failure to meet the mentoring program requirements will result in the loss of the Say Yes Scholarship.

Costs NOT covered by the Say Yes Scholarship

Room & Board

If you choose or are required to live on campus you will be charged for the dorm-room (room) you choose as well as the meal plan (board) that you choose. You may be given different options for both your dorm-room and meal plan, but please note that these different options will cost different amounts.

Books & Supplies

You will be responsible for purchasing your books and supplies for your classes. These costs could be more than $1,000 a year. There are many websites that sell and rent textbooks. You should research multiple sites to find the best prices for your books and supplies.

Course Fees

Say Yes scholarships will pay for all mandatory instructional fees, which are fees that every student who attends your college or university must pay. You may incur other fees depending on specific classes you take. Say Yes will NOT cover these costs.

Transportation and Personal Expenses

You may need to travel back and forth to the college or university that you attend for holiday breaks or other times. You will also incur personal expenses throughout the year such as personal hygiene items, gasoline if you have a car or snacks not included on your meal plan. Say Yes will NOT cover these costs.

Other Funding Sources

Institutional Scholarships may be available from the institution and do not need to be repaid. These scholarships can be applied to other costs of attendance like room & board, unless they are designated for tuition only, in which case it will be applied to remaining tuition before the Say Yes scholarship is applied. Be sure to meet all deadlines for scholarship applications.

Outside Scholarships may be available from sources outside of the institution you attend, and do not need to be repaid. These scholarships can be applied to other costs of attendance like room & board, unless they are designated for tuition only, in which case it will be applied to remaining tuition before the Say Yes scholarship is applied. Ask your school counselor or College Now advisor for help in finding outside scholarships. Be sure to meet all deadlines for scholarship applications.

Student Loans are funds that the student can borrow to pay for college expenses. Student loans must be repaid after you stop attending college. Student loans can be applied to other costs of attendance like room & board. There are many loan options available to students. Contact the financial aid office at the institution you plan to attend or your College Now advisor for more information on student loans.

Direct Plus Loans are money that a student's parent can borrow to pay for college expenses. Direct Plus Loans must be repaid. Direct Plus Loans can be applied to other costs of attendance like room & board. Contact the financial aid office at the institution you plan to attend or your College Now advisor for more information on Direct Plus Loans.

Federal Work Study is a program that provides funds that are earned through part-time employment to assist students in paying the costs of college. Contact the financial aid office at the institution you plan to attend to see if you are eligible for the Work Study Program. If you are not eligible, you may still be eligible to work on campus through a non-Work Study position. Discuss these opportunities with the office for on-campus student employment at the institution you plan to attend.

Special COVID Policy Updates for the Classes of 2019, 2020, and 2021

Extended Eligibility

Say Yes scholarships are designed to support students throughout their postsecondary endeavors and always give students the flexibility to stop out for up to one full academic year (two semesters) and still maintain scholarship eligibility. In light of the COVID pandemic, a new, short-term policy has been created for the CMSD graduating Classes of 2019, 2020 and 2021 to increase the flexibility of Say Yes scholarships and support students' postsecondary endeavors during this health crisis.

This policy, created by the Say Yes Scholarship Board, gives CMSD graduates from the high school Classes of 2019, 2020 and 2021 two additional semesters of eligibility in which to use their Say Yes scholarship dollars. Students from the Classes of 2019, 2020 and 2021 now have 6 years (12 semesters), following high school graduation, in which to use 4 years (eight semesters) of scholarship funding.

This short-term policy ensures that students from the CMSD Classes of 2019, 2020 and 2021 who have already stopped out for one or more semesters – or delayed the start of their postsecondary education – will not be negatively impacted in their eligibility for Say Yes scholarship dollars.

Part-Time Enrollment

If graduates from the CMSD Classes of 2019, 2020, or 2021 are unable to enroll full-time at an eligible public postsecondary institution due to the COVID pandemic, the Say Yes scholarship will pay tuition and mandatory fees for up to two part-time semesters (6-11 credit hours) for fall 2021 and spring 2022. Students must communicate their part-time status to Say Yes Cleveland by completing a form on the scholarship appeals page at:
